Darla also ministers to those women who have or are suffering from issues of stress, anxiety and depression, she speaks encouragement to those in need. Their hope is that through the ministry God has entrusted them with, by using the talent God has placed in them, that through their music lives will be changed.

A Lady, not a Woman

We lost a dear church family member unexpectedly. Lillian Marsh went to sleep on the evening of November eleven right next to Al, her husband of 69 years. But on the next morning she woke up in heaven.

I saw her on the previous Sunday morning just before Sunday School. As usual she walked into the social hall with a gentle and warm smile. She was impeccably dressed. Lillian gave me a hug, and then sat down at her usual table.

Exactly seven days later while looking at exactly the same table, Mable Miller said, "I can't believe Lillian is not going to be here today. I couldn't go to sleep, just thinking about her. She was a lady, not a woman. In heaven, I wonder if there are different seats for ladies. She was a really lady." At her funeral, people were celebrating her life. Again, people said of Lillian "she was a real lady" and "she was a grand lady". That label seems to be the best descriptor of her person. I looked up the word "lady" and found:

1. a woman who is refined, polite, and well-spoken
2. a woman of high social position or economic class:
3. any woman; female (sometimes used in combination):

When Mabel used the word "lady" to describe Lillian, I'm sure she meant meaning number one. I'd like to add to the list of lady-like qualities. Beyond "refined, polite and well-spoken", Lillian demonstrated: "love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control." According to the Apostle Paul, these are the fruit of the Spirit [Galatians 5:22-23]. Lillian was a lady for sure, but surely she was a godly lady.

The Center of God's Will

Several years ago, I was struggling. I had graduated from the Baptist Seminary, but I had not yet found a position that fit the person God created me to be. I was reading in the Psalms of David and my soul was resonating with his words. I wrote my own psalm and called it "Psalm of the Doors". I offer it to all who are trying to discern God's will for their life.

How do you place yourself at the center of God's will? I've heard that there are doors that open and close which lead to the center of His Will.

I see a door wide-open leading to Africa, but upon examining the fingerprints on the doorknob I wonder: Are they God's or my own?

I struggle with a closed door that refuses to yield. Whose prints are on the latch? Did the grace of God close this door for my sake? Or did my own lack of faith seal it shut?

God, I want to be useful to your Kingdom. I long to Glorify You on the earth. I desire to be at the center of Your Will.

Lord, I'm a simple creature. Leave me a bread-crum trail. Sound the alarm bell when I arrive at the center of Your Will.

Church Christmas Party

Saturday, December 5th
4:00 p.m.

We are having a Christmas Party. This party will include a special "Christmas food" potluck. Bring along a small portion of whatever it is that you like to eat during the Christmas season, but sneak your food into the fellowship hall inside a brown paper bag. We will have fun sharing and guessing who brought what. We are also having a gift exchange. If you would like to participate, bring a wrapped gift priced at $10 or less. There will be games, singing, and fun.

Christmas Caroling

Monday, December 7th
6:00 p.m.

We will be going Christmas Caroling and you are invited to come along. We will meet at the church and travel as a group. Typically we visit about a dozen homes and sing a few songs in front of each house. It's a great way to spread cheer during this Christmas season. Afterwards, we warm up by sharing cookies, hot pastries, and beverages.
