

Happy Mother's Day

God is at Work

God Is Good and is at work here at First Southern Baptist Church.

We had 7 people that came forward to join our church and one baptized. They are Angie, Carrie, Debra, Gary, Charles, Curt, Jennifer and Bob.

Praise God as we welcome them to our church.

Cell Group Ministry

We had our first cell group ministry meeting at the home of Barbara Martinez on April 26th. Five ladies from First Southern and a guest came for our first meeting. Barbara read a story about forgiveness, then we used the story to discuss how we deal with forgiveness in our lives. We had a stimulating discussion that helped us to reflect on our Christian walk, and we prayed for each other. The next meeting will be on May 28th at 7 p.m. Please come and become a part of our group. Contact Barbara or Kim.

Safe Shelter

The weather has been capricious lately. Yesterday, the afternoon sun warmed our condo up to 90 degrees, but this morning was chilly and damp. As I was settling into my armchair, enjoying my morning coffee with newspaper, I suddenly heard a noise from outside the window. I thought someone was scattering salt over our veranda. It was hail! But even before I stood to look, the hail turned into showers. This is a pretty rare happening in the Bay area.

Here in California, we are blessed with good year-round climate, but in many places, people live in the midst of harsh and unpredictable storms. Thunder, lightening, downpours, hail, and blizzards are commonplace. When I hear thunder and lightening, I know a storm is approaching. I quickly find the nearest shelter to weather the storm and stay dry. I know that if I ignore the signs, a storm might catch me and I might catch cold, or even suffer from pneumonia.

Just as we run into storms in nature, we run into storms in life. When you see a life storm approaching, what do you do? Do you run to a safe place? Or do you ignore the signs and suffer the damage it causes? As children of God, we are fortunate that we have a safe shelter – a hiding place – to run to in times of need.

Thank You

Thank you to all of you who make it possible and for those of you who helped make up the Easter bags. We took some of the bags to the children at the Women's Crisis Center and we kept some and gave them out to the children who came to church on Easter Sunday.

Who are the most influential Christians?

A few years ago, Christian History magazine polled its readers. The editors asked, "Who are the most influential Christians of the 20th century?" and they came up with a list of ten names. Can you guess who they were? As I studied this list, I ran across some familiar names as well as a few surprises.

The top two were Billy Graham and C.S. Lewis, two of my Christian heroes. Billy Graham has preached the gospel to more people than any man in history, while C.S. Lewis is the pre-eminent author of Christian apologetics with millions of books in print. My personal spiritual journey was greatly helped along the way by C.S. Lewis and his Christian apologetic.

The top ten influential Christians include three Catholic figures [Pope John XXIII, Pope John Paul II, and Mother Teresa] and two German theologians [Karl Barth and Dietrich Bonhoeffer]. Of course, Martin Luther King, Jr. was on the list for his religious leadership in civil rights. Also making the top ten were two people I did not know: James Mott was an American Methodist who founded the World Council of Churches and William Seymour was an African-American preacher who was pivotal in launching the Pentecostal movement from Azusa Street in Los Angeles.

Of course the most influential Christians in MY LIFE have been family and friends: [1] my dad and [2] my mom for setting the Christian example in childhood; [3] my brother Frank for encouragement in my college years; [4, 5 & 6] my three sisters for their prayers & concerns; [7] my VBS teachers and [8] Sunday school teachers; [9] pastors and seminary professors; and [10] my wonderful wife who has stood by this frail human being for 35 years. Who have been the most influential Christians in your life? If you are able, be sure to give your thanks.
